The Africa Center for Sustainable Ecosystems and Societies

In the fall of 2014, the SoGES Global Challenges Research Team, Sustainable African Ecosystems and Societies Under Global Change, was designated a Center of the University.

Promoting environmental, economic and social sustainability by linking diverse communities, perspectives, and knowledge

Enhancing biodiversity and conservation

Advancing human and animal health

2014-2015 Sponsored Events

Coffee Social
The Africa Center Graduate Student Fellows have been working on various projects including an interactive map for the website that shows the variety of Colorado State University projects in Africa.